ANGERS : ITS MAIN QUARTERS

The heart of the city is very lively and is home to historic and administrative buildings. Students wishing to live there will find themselves only 20 minutes from the sports facilities and 30 minutes from ESSCA thanks to bus lines 1 and 8. Students should therefore seek accommodation close to these lines. A few "express busses" take students to the school in just 15 minutes. Public parks are also nearby: Jardin des Plantes, Jardin du Mail and Beaux-Arts.

The Catho sector stretches out from the David d'Angers secondary school and the Université Catholique de l'Ouest. To the south, La Fayette and La Blancheraie are located close to the train station. To the north, Montaigne and Saint-Serge are separated by the Jardin des Plantes.

The Doutre is located across the Maine, a short distance from downtown.

Towards the outskirts, residential areas extend towards the Boulevard de Strasbourg, the Madeleine, Saint-Léonard, Pasteur-Lutin and Saint-Jacques.

Beyond, the suburbs are a full part of the urban landscape: the Roseraie, Monplaisir, Belle-Beille, Verneau and Lac de Maine..

ESSCA is located in the heart of the Belle-Beille campus, close to a university restaurant and library. In fact, a great number of students choose to live downtown and in the Doutre area.
