WELCOME TO ESSCA!

On behalf of ESSCA, the International Relations Office would like to welcome you to the International Exchange Programme. If you decide to join the programme, you will become a part of our expanding student community. ESSCA welcomes more than 700 International students per year across our 4 campuses, from over 50 different countries – so you are guaranteed to have a truly international experience!

By studying at ESSCA you will become a part of one of the most prestigious post BAC business schools in the country which is accredited by the French Ministry for Education and by three international accreditation agencies, EFMD, AACSB and AMBA.

We have created this Practical Guide to help our International Students to get prepared for their exchange experience ahead with us.

Visa Information

All non-Chinese nationals need to apply for a visa to enter China for the purpose of studying. ESSCA, together with its partners in China, will send you an official visa invitation letter to apply for your Chinese visa.

Those wishing to study for a period of up to 6 months should apply for Visa X2. Applicants should submit the China Visa Application Form along with their passport (valid for at least 6 months) and a recent passport photo. If you wish study for a period more than 6 months, you will have to apply for Visa X1. Please inform your contact person at ESSCA (Carole ZHU: carole.zhu@essca.fr) as early as possible that you intend to stay for an internship after your study period.

Below is the information given by the Chinese Embassy in France in regards to visas for studying (for international exchange students: please check the information given by the Chinese Embassy in your country!): Visa X (Study Visa) - Objective: Studying

Documents needed

- A valid passport (needs to be valid at least 6 months and to have 2 blank pages). If your passport does not have this you must apply for a new one.
- A filled and signed copy of your application form to request the visa, with an attached ID photo.
- Application form JW202 which has been authorized by the Chinese Education authorities.
- Proof of your attendance at ESSCA from Shanghai International Studies University (SISU).
- If you live in France, for non-French passports, proof of residence in France (or proof of your employment in France, Certificate of your registration in a French studying establishment) is required.

The visa fee varies considerably from country to country. To work out the exact cost it is necessary to check with the Chinese Consulate.

You will find more information on the visa information sheet which should have been sent to you along with your invitation letter and JW202 document.

If you are French, You can also find some of the visa information online:

http://www.visaforchina.org/PAR\_FR/

<http://www.consulfrance-shanghai.org/accueil.html>

It is advisable that you apply for a visa one month before your intended date of entry into China but not earlier than three months. If you apply for a visa too early, the visa may expire before your departure.

To modify or to extend your visa when you are in Shanghai, you must explore the possibility with Carole ZHU.

Administrative fees at ESSCA

Administration costs to take into account include residence permit and police registration fees which are payable to ESSCA Shanghai. For those on the summer programme the total administration cost is 1200HKD, and 1570 HKD for those studying for a semester.

Please make your payment to ESSCA Shanghai with either:

- PayPal

- Wire-Transfer

- Currency: HKD
- Beneficiary: HKESSCA HK LIMITED
- Beneficiary Account: 148276508001
- Swift / BIC: SOGEHKHH
- Beneficiary Bank: Société Générale, HongKong (bank Code: 081)
- Bank Address : Three Pacific Palace, 1 Queen's road East, Hongkong
- Beneficiary Address: RM 150 (198) 15/F SPA CTR, 53-55 LOCKHART RD WANCHAI, HONG KONG

Please upload your remittance of payment with your ESSCA application online. The letter of acceptance will be sent to you on receipt of your remittance of payment.

Health insurance

Before arriving, you should organize travel and a comprehensive personal health, repatriation and liability insurance for the duration of your stay.

Students must give ESSCA a copy of their contract with a 24h HotLine for emergency.

Inform your bank

Some banks get worried when a transaction with your credit card is realized in another country. Your bank could think that the transaction isn't normal and might block your card. Therefore, don't forget to inform your bank that you will soon be leaving in China.

You should, just in case, travel with 250/500 USD/€ and keep it as change in case you get into any kind of trouble with your credit card.

If you want to open an account in China, you need to provide your tax number in your country.

ARRIVAL IN SHANGHAI

Taxi from airport

When coming to Shanghai, you will probably fly into Pudong International Airport which is located 40 km east of the city.

You should always have your destination in Chinese. Chinese people aren't always able to translate an address written in alphabet.

To transfer to the city centre, a taxi is the most convenient option but the journey can take up to an hour depending on transport and is likely to cost around 200 RMB. Take the taxi following panel indication, go to taxi station, usually the wait is not long; avoid the taxi accosting in arrival hall, it may be expensive option.

Airport buses are a cheaper option (20 - 30 RMB). They will take around 80 minutes. Airport Bus n° 4 will drop you to Lu Xun Park (nearest to ESSCA Shanghai) for 22 RMB. You could use a taxi after to get to your final destination. For more information:

<http://www.shanghai-airport-transfer.com/transportation/pudong-airport-shuttle-bus.htm>

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Shanghai\_Pudong\_International\_Airport

A third option is to take the 'Transrapid' shuttle train ("Maglev train") from Pudong to Longyang Road station on Line 2 which, travelling at a speed of 430km/hour takes only 8 minutes! This train runs from 7 AM in the morning to 9 PM in the evening, with a single ticket costing 50 RMB. If you show your airplane ticket at the Maglev train ticket counter, it will only cost you 40 RMB per ride. From Longyang Road station you can easily navigate the underground system to reach the city centre or else take a taxi (about 50 RMB to the city center). Please find a tube map by following this link:

Lost luggage

Should you lose your luggage, you should report this to the authorities within the airport immediately as per their standard procedure. You must provide them with your name, phone number and address where you will be, so that they can deliver the luggage directly to you once it has been retrieved.

If you don't have these information, you can use ESSCA Shanghai address's and the mobile phone number of Carole ZHU:

7 Floor, Administration Building - No.390 East Tiyuhui Road

Mobile of Carole: 135 0161 9730

Please inform Carole ZHU by mail or SMS with reference you obtain on the 'lost luggage sheet', she will be happy to assist you.

Hotel or hostel

If you choose to spend one semester at ESSCA Shanghai it is advisable to organize temporary accommodation for the first few nights in a hotel or a hostel nearby the school.

If you need help to book a hotel near ESSCA, contact Carole ZHU

Accommodation

Your semester-long accommodation can then be arranged by specialist rental agencies in Shanghai who will show you available properties to choose from. Alumni of the ESSCA Shanghai recommend the following agencies:

The monthly rent for a single room in a shared apartment is likely to be around €500 (3,500 to 4,500 RMB per month). This of course depends on the location, if the apartment is furnished, etc. Utility bills (gas, water, electricity, Internet) usually need to be paid separately. The majority of apartments in the above price range have all the necessary amenities including furniture, kitchen equipment, laundry facilities, Internet, TV, etc. In most cases, accommodation is available within walking distance or a short bus or taxi ride from the ESSCA Shanghai teaching site.

If you do not know a student you could share an apartment with, please do not worry. We can send you a list of other students at ESSCA Shanghai you will be studying with to help you find someone. On websites such as SmartShanghai and others, there are many international students from all over the world looking for roommates so it will be easy for you to find a room.

Local sim cards

It's easy to purchase a local sim card (pay as you go), having a local mobile phone number can prove very convenient.

Three companies offer the SIM card (pay as you go): 'China Mobile', 'China Unicom' and 'China Telecom'. You should buy the SIM Card with your passport.

Police registration

Upon arrival in China, you need to register with your local Police station within 24 hours.

If you stay at a hotel or a hostel, the reception will take of your registration for you.

Once you have found an apartment however, you have to register within 24 hours.

Please do this ASAP to avoid any fines (up to 2,000 RMB!). To register, you need to scan this QR code (you need your passport for this procedure):

If you have a X2 visa, Every time you leave China and you come back, you have to register with the police again.

This document from your police station is requested to apply for a new visa or a new entry in Shanghai from the Public Security Bureau.

Local currency and bank

The local currency in China is the “Ren Min Bi (RMB or CNY)”.

We recommend that you exchange or withdrawal money from ATM at least 300 CNY from the airport before taking the transfer for city center.

For current expenditure:

- Cash machine (ATM) by international banking card (don't forget to prevent your home bank, your card could be blocked).
- Change: every bank can do the change, but you must go with your passport.

Introduction / Welcome day

You will receive an e-mail from our programme director a few days before the start of your semester to inform you about your 1st day at the campus.

LIFE IN SHANGHAI

Living costs

Compared to many Western cities, Shanghai is a relatively inexpensive city to live in but of course this depends on your personal lifestyle. Some sample prices can be found below.

These are based on the exchange rate of 100 RMB = 14.23 USD, 12.92 EUR (November 2019) please check the updated exchange rate HERE.

Below are the estimated prices as of November 2019. Please check the updated exchange rate (see text above) to determine prices:

Your health before arrival: there are no particular vaccinations required. However, should you wish to take precaution you could make sure all your Hepatitis vaccinations are up to date (Hepatitis A+B).

Please check with your local GP/doctor about this – especially if you wish to travel around China and Asia. Note that such injections may not be reimbursable by your health insurance.

Activities and leisure

ESSCA Shanghai arrange welcome and farewell events each semester as well as other regular cultural events such as excursions and museum visits. Of course, you can become active and organize trips, events, visits yourselves with your fellow students. If we can be of any help, do not hesitate to speak to the ESSCA Shanghai staff.

Shopping in Shanghai, often referred to as 'Oriental Paris,' is not to be missed. The major commercial area is split into 'Four Streets and Four Cities' where you can find fashion stores, designer stores, souvenir shops and many restaurants and bars. But there are also many other markets worth visiting:

- For clothing and gifts: No.2202 Xin Shi ji (New century) Avenue.
Metro: Shanghai Science and Technology Museum (Line 2)
浦东新世纪大道2202号 地铁2号线科技馆站内

- For fabrics, you can choose your own fabric, style and colour and tailors will make your outfit:
no. 399, Lu Jia Bang Rd (by Nan Cang Street) 家家四陆399号 (南仓街口)

- For computers and technology: no.41 Cao Xi Bei (North) Rd (Near Xu Jia Hui) 漕溪北路41号

- For arts and crafts: Tai Kang Rd (By Si Nan Rd or Rui Jin Er Rd) 泰康路
(思南路或瑞金二路)

Regarding culture, the Shanghai Museum, the Urban Planning Museum and the Oriental Pearl TV Tower are all worth visiting. If you are interested in music, arts exhibitions and theatre, there are plenty of activities which take every month. SmartShanghai provides much information about recent activities.

For sports enthusiasts, Shanghai has all of the facilities expected in any major city worldwide. Events to look out for include Formula 1 and the ATP Tennis Masters.

Sports and other facilities are available in our partner university, Shanghai International Studies University.

Travel

You may wish to save some money before coming to Shanghai for travelling and experiencing more of China and Asia. Around Shanghai, nice sites to visit during weekends include Hangzhou and Suzhou, and further afield Beijing, Xi'an and Guilin can all be easily reached by rail or air when you have more time to travel. To purchase train tickets in advance, visit:

205 WuSong Road 吴淞路 205号 (near ESSCA Shanghai)

ESSCA Shanghai staff are more than happy to give you advice. For flights, the following websites often offer good deals:

<http://english.ctrip.com/>

<http://www.elong.net/>

<http://www.csair.com/en/index.shtml>

<http://www.airchina.com.cn/en/index.shtml>

If you wish to travel by boat, you can buy tickets:

No.1 Jinling Dong (east) Road 金陵东路1 号

During Chinese holiday (Golden Week), a travel agency will organize a special trip dedicated to our students.

Food and drink

Shanghai cuisine is characterized by its sweet and oily nature and because the name 'Shanghai' literally means 'above the sea,' steamed seafood is a popular dish. Dishes to look out for include 'xiao long bao' a steamed dumpling of broth and meat, 'zui ji' steamed chicken marinated in rice wine, and 'you tiao' a long-deep-fried doughnut consumed with soya milk for breakfast.

The price of eating and drinking out in cafés and bars varies greatly depending on location.

It is also worth noting that it is not advisable to drink the tap water in Shanghai. However bottled water is widely available and is not too expensive.
